DELIGHTFUL OCCASION. - Mrs. Chas. Hamilton Paine, of Boston, who is at home for a visit to her parents, was given a most beautiful reception Tuesday afternoon by her mother, Mrs. William Preston Tate. The Tate home was very effectively decorated for the occasion. The drawing room, where the guests were received, was quite pretty in white carnations and potted plants, and the library was in pink, and here two lovely young ladies, Misses Mary Higgins and Le Grande Jones, served frappe to the guests. The dining room was in crimson carnations, a huge bunch in a cut glass vase being the center decoration of the table and on either end were placed the silver tea urns, from which the charming matrons, Mesdames L. B. Cook and J. G. Carpenter, poured the tea, and in the back hall the musicians were hidden from view by an alcove of palms and potted plants. Those who received with Mrs. Tate were Mrs. Paine, Mrs. C. E. Tate, Mrs. J. H. Baughman and Mrs. L. M. Omer. Mrs. Tate was handsomely gowned in gray silk, Mrs. Paine wore an exquisite gown of real lace, made princess. Mrs. Clarence Tate was quite handsome in white silk, Mrs. Baughman's costume was a beautiful creation of white brocade satin, while Mrs. Omer was charming in white chiffon mohair. The occasion was unusually pleasant, 150 guests calling during the afternoon, a great many of whom were former schoolmates of the guest of honor.

WE are now having dogwood winter or some other kind of winter. Any way it is almost as "cold as Christmas" and some snow fell yesterday and this morning. The clouds of the last two mornings have prevented killing frosts.

WHILE driving home from town the other day, Mrs. John Gooch and daughter, Miss Annie Gooch, had a narrow escape from serious injury. A portion of the harness broke and the horse became unmanageable. Mrs. Gooch jumped and was badly bruised.

PROF. J. L. BOSLEY has resigned as superintendent of the Graded School and will accept a chair in Central University. The many friends he and his wife have made during their sojourn here will give them up with regret. The trustees have not elected a successor to Prof. Bosley.

AFTER people visit the larger cities they always tell of the great 5 and 10c store they have visited and the bargains offered. So to fill the want we have established a mammoth 5 and 10c department, where the public can get the same big values as in the 5 and 10c city stores. John P. Jones.

PEDAGOGUE TO EDITOR. - Prof. R. S. Eubank, formerly of this place, but now superintendent of the Graded School at Hustonville, has bought a half interest in the Southern School Journal at Lexington and will move to that place and assume his duties at the close of his school. His friends here wish him great success in his new role.

THERE was quite an exciting time at Mr. Luther Underwood's one day last week. A snake about 1 1/2 or two inches long was cooked in some cabbage, of which the family ate heartily. After dinner the snake was discovered, but luckily none were poisoned, as they drank grease and melted butter. - Hedgeville cor. Advocate.

It is passing strange how close the votes are in some primaries and elections. Recently there was a tie in Rockcastle county, T. J. Hill for sheriff in this county only claims one majority, also in the primary in Clark county there was only one difference in the county clerk's race, while in McCracken county the two candidates for circuit clerk got 824 votes each. In the latter case the candidates will run the race over.

At the city council meeting last night Councilman M. D. Elmore was elected Mayor Pro Tem. to serve the city in the absence of Mayor Florence. A lot of claims were ordered paid. The street committee recommended that brick pavements be laid on Danville street, commencing at J. W. Wallace's corner and including front of Hon. Harvey Helm's yard, thence across street to Dr. Steele Bailey's, including him. Also pavements were ordered made on Lancaster street from W. O. Speed's corner to M. F. Elkin's, including him. A lot of old pavements were ordered repaired on Lower Main. Wholesale beer license was granted C. V. Gentry and then the body adjourned.

3,200 ROLLS of wall paper just arrived in addition to our already large stock of wall paper. We also have lace curtains, curtain poles, curtain stretchers and window shades. Tribble & Pence.

GEORGE ROWSEY, sent up from Boyle county in May, 1898, for the murder of a German named Kaiser for life, has been granted a parole. It will be remembered that Rowsey shot his victim at the entrance of the court-house at Danville.

M., No. 23, Southbound, at 12:30 P. M., and No. 24, Northbound, at 4:25 A. M. No. 21 takes the place of No. 25, No. 22, the place of No. 24 and No. 24 the place of No. 26.

NOTICE!

All persons having claims against the estate of W. H. Badgett, deceased, will present them to me properly verified before May 30, 1905. Claims not presented within this time will not be allowed.

G. B. SAUTLEY, M. C. L. C. C.

MIKADO.

Bay coach stallion, 15 1/2 hands high, good style and action. Bred by Crouch & Son, of Indiana. He has proven himself a great breeder. Come and look Mikado over before booking your mares. He will sire good, big colts—the kind the farmers need. Will stand at my place, four miles West of Crab Orchard, at $6 to insure a live colt. Will also stand my fine jack, JOHN, known as the Cochran jack, at $7 for mare mules and $6 for horse mules. John is 15 hands high, with white and black points. John has proven himself a good mule jack.

Lien retained on colts until season money is paid. Mares traded or parted with or removed from the county forfeits the insurance. Care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

GEORGE D. BOONE, R. F. D. No. 1, Stanford, Ky.

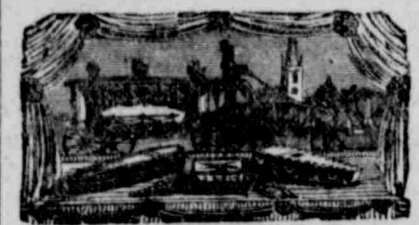

NABOTH JR.

Naboth, Jr., is a beautiful dark bay with heavy mane and tail, with good bone, plenty of style and finish and has extreme high action and if worked would step as fast as old Naboth, his sire. He is over 16 hands high, weighs 1,225 pounds and only 6-years-old this May. He is by the well-known Naboth, who was sired by Washington, sire of Latitude, 2:17 1/4, and many others in the list. Washington, Naboth's sire, is a son of George Wilkes, first dam Tired, by Messenger Buroc, son of Hambletonian and sire of Elaine, 2:20, the dam of Noraine, yearling record, 2:31 1/2. Naboth, Jr.'s first dam is Messenger Chief, Jr.; 2nd dam by Crit Davis; 3rd dam a thoroughbred. He will make the season of 1905 at my stable in Stanford, Ky., at the low price of $12.50 to insure a living colt. Money due when colt is foaled or mare parted with. Mares traded or removed from this county forfeits the insurance and the money is due. Lien retained on colts until season is paid.

Naboth is considered by the best horsemen to be the best horse in Kentucky to breed to for high-class harness horses. See him before you breed.
